In come is not deemed to include child benefit, child care allowance, pensioners' care allowance, child increment according to the Social Insurance Act, housing allowance, disability allowance, medical treatment and examination expenses paid for on the basis of accident insurance, draftees' dependants allowance, front veterans' pension allowance, study grant, adult study grant, student housing allowance, activity money paid in the form of subsistence support and travel reimbursement, maintenance payment according to the Rehabilitation Grant Act, maintenance payment according to the Act on adult education relating to labour policy grants or other corresponding assistance paid for study purposes, compensation for costs of foster care or child home care allowance.

Deductions from income include

Maintenance assistance paid and other similar costs arising from real family relationships, as well as life annuities.

The day-care fee is calculated by applying the relevant fee percentage given below to any income exceeding the income threshold determined according to the size of the family.

Income thresholds and fee percentages

Family size	Income threshold EUR/month	Maximum fee %
2	2102	10,70
3	2713	10,70
4	3080	10,70
5	3447	10,70
6	3813	10,70

If the family size exceeds six, the income threshold, which determines the fee, will be increased by €142 for each subsequent child in the family. The maximum monthly fee is €289 for the youngest child, and the fee for older sibling is 50% from first child's fee, maximum monthly fee for and older sibling is €145. For each subsequent child in day care, the fee is 20% of the fee for the first child i.e. a maximum of €58,00. A monthly fee per child amounting to less than €27 will not be collected.

The family's first child is always deemed to be the youngest child to use the day-care services.

The fee for the second child and any subsequent children is determined as a proportion of the calculated full-time day care fee of the youngest child. The fee for part-time care (if care time is less than five hours per day) is 60% of the price of full-time care.

The family size is deemed by including both persons living in a joint household, married or in marriage-like arrangements, and each partner's children under the age of 18 living in the same household.
