

OULU Notice of termination of studies in a general upper secondary school

A student subject to compulsory education is considered to have terminated their studies based on their own notice only when they have started new studies as defined in 4§ (Oppivelvollisuuslaki 13§).

If the student submits a written notice of terminating their studies to the education provider, the student's right to study ends on the day on which the notice is received by the education provider, or a later time notified by the student (Lukiolaki 24§).
